

Why a Tool for Countries' Generic Preparedness Plans development?

Concha Martin Pando
WP5 Coordination
Madrid Workshop, March 2013; ISC III

WP5 Objectives

Enhancing the preparedness capacities for facing threats which can affect the health security and bio-security risks at national/regional levels in the framework of the IHR implementation

Capacity building process

Objective

- To ease the development of Generic Preparedness & Response Plans by countries

Rationale for a Tool

- Results of the Core-Capacity Assessment
- Results of the Madrid Workshop Feb 2012
- Results of the WHO Lyon Meeting PoE
- Many available guidelines from different agencies (WHO, ECDC, others)

Five parts of the tool

- Country office capacities inventory
- Emergency Response Team ERT
- Hazards management
- Communication
- Coordination

Are we in the right way?

Can we identify the strategic added value of the Network for facing the risks?

How to share capacities and resources within EPISOUTH?
